

🚨 URGENT: Life-or-Death Situation for Five Sweet Kittens! 🐾

Location: Huntington Park

Status: Extreme Urgency – Risk of Shelter Euthanasia

Hi community, we are in an absolute race against time. Our dedicated community cat feeder recently discovered five beautiful new kittens on our block (pictured below).

🐾 The Background & The Risk:

We work tirelessly to manage our local feline neighborhood. We currently care for a colony of about 30 adult cats, all of whom are fully spayed and neutered (fixed)! Unfortunately, neighboring or outside unfixed roaming cats occasionally drop by and bring their babies. While we have successfully caught and fixed the mothers of these sweet kittens and are working on the remaining newcomers, we cannot keep these babies on the street.

⚠️ THE HARSH REALITY: If we cannot find fosters or adopters immediately, our feeder will have no choice but to take them to a local city shelter. Because city shelters are completely overwhelmed right now, these kittens will be at immediate risk of being euthanized. We desperately want to prevent this.

☀️ Meet the Kittens (See Photos Below):

- The Little Fluffballs (Approx. 6 Weeks Old): Fluffy and Ash. Two tiny, adorable gray tabbies who are just starting to explore. They are at the ultimate adoptable age and deserve a chance at life.

- The Sweet Older Trio (Approx. 2–3 Months Old): Espresso, Latte, and Mochi. Three slightly older kittens (including the gorgeous black and two tuxedo/bicolor (gray/tabby) babies pictured). They are full of play, curiosity, and love.

Medical Note:

We want to set these babies up for success! We are completely willing to cover the cost to have them fixed (spayed/neutered) and vaccinated before they go to their new homes.
